

Second Floor

The second floor doubles our medical examination rooms from nine to eighteen. This will make our provision of services more efficient, more private, and more effective. Thanks to these new spaces, we will expand our pediatric and adolescent health services, as well as our women's health and all other adult programs. Additional private rooms will let a wide range of professionals provide "social wellness" counseling, and a host of public health programs and services.

