

Third Floor

The third floor of the new MCHC facility will bring together all administrative spaces, and also provide an expandable conference room for board meetings and other group events. A roof deck with many plants will provide additional function space in the good weather months.

